

Train to Teach

LEVEL 3 Award in Education and Training

Course overview:

- understand the roles and responsibilities of the trainer
- understand appropriate teaching and learning strategies within a specialist area.
- plan, deliver and evaluate a micro-teach session
- understand the use of different assessment methods and the need for record keeping
- Understand the need to plan and deliver inclusive sessions and promote equality and diversity

NCFE Award in Education and Training is a fully accredited course which serves as an introductory course for those who are interested in delivering training in the post compulsory education sector and work based training. This course is applicable to new entrants to teaching /training and for those who wish to achieve a recognised training qualification.

IS THIS COURSE FOR ME?

- would you like or require an introduction to delivering training sessions in the Lifelong Learning Sector or
- are seeking career progression within this area of work or
- want to develop your skills in providing work based training in your organisation.

The qualification provides an entry point and introduction for those new to teaching and training. |

This qualification is a stepping stone for those who want to develop their career in training and want a formally recognized certification. It is also recognized by Higher Education Institute as an entry requirement for those who want to obtain degree level qualifications in teaching and training.

MODE OF STUDY

The Award is delivered as a 4 day intensive course, you will be required to undertake self-directed study to complete your written assessments.

HOW WILL I BE ASSESSED?

You will be required to complete two written assignments and an assessed micro teaching session. You will be given appropriate support and guidance to complete these